

Wings report 2011

1. It's a blessing always to receive your new letter and to hear that all is well. Thanks for sharing. I am the Flag, as well as the rest of the writing. I enjoyed them all. Now concerning the name "OUTCASTS" I like it. Because that's what the people were, Outcasts; Rejected but Special. The name is O.K. as long as the words that are written will bring glory, thanks and praises too the Lord.
Union Corrections
2. I want to know why I was left off the mailing list. Did you think that I left? Not yet soon.
Wayne Wishart, Avenel, N.J.
3. Just dropping you a line to say what's up and let you know that I appreciate you thoroughly, I can't ignore how you keep me in mind and deep me in your prayers and write me every month. You know I was thinking that sometimes God takes everything away from you so that you have nothing but him. I've matured so much spiritually, mentally and yes even physically. I must admit that there are people and other things trying to take me off track. (But I got my armor on, Book of Eph.) But that only means that I'm already on the right track or the track that leads to the right track because if I wasn't, then they wouldn't try so hard to bring me down. Mundorff, SWSP
4. I am writing again to let y'all know that I appreciate the King James version Bible that was sent to me. I'm sincerely indebted to you for your generosity, your help is really appreciated....your thoughtfulness brightens my day and cheered my heart in countless ways....Thank you
Michael Rose, Rahway
5. Things here at the S.T.U. are great. God is really working miracles here at the S.T.U. He is so great. I don't know how I survived before I knew Him. I guess that's the thing, I was only surviving and not living as I'm doing now. Thank you Father. I'm so glad He brought me to Wings. Vince Sanford STU Avenel
6. Thank you Lynne for sharing your thoughts and yes, your life with me and so many others over the years. As my teacher in God's word, starting back in the 80's. You have always been there for me. Your friendship is an endless blessing and I pray God will bless you a thousand times over for your endless love for so many. Guy Bishop, Glades Corrections, Belle Glade, Fla.
7. Thank you so much for the card and OUTCAST letter. I really love those letters, especially the little jokes. They brought a laugh from me.
8. I would truly like to stay in contact with your ministry. It is a wonderful and Blessing thing you are doing. Edmond Wilson, Liveoak, Fla.
9. Thanks to you I had a dinner stew with soup, got 2 bags of coffee and will be able to get more. Guy Bishop Glades Corrections
10. I received the Daily Bread and the Word for you Today. Thanks so much. They truly are a blessing. It's amazing how many guys who don't go to church yet ask for a Daily Bread or other devotional every 3 months. Even a couple of the guards ask for one. Even if they don't go to church it's a start on their walk there. We give them the Daily Bread and then God will work on them from there. He is great and awesome. Vince Sanford Avenel NJ
11. I wanted to finally take the time and thank you for the birthday cards you have sent me. Last year yours was the only thing I received and it really did mean a lot to me. So thank you. Donnell Demetreus Bradford, Pa Fed. Correctional Institute Mc Kean
12. Howdy "Sis" Sara, Thank Ya, Thank Ya, Thank Ya and I thank God fer ya' I love ya Sis. Yes, I put yer newsletter on tha shelf they had at tha hospital. So ya mite have some new seller's cause it wa gone perty fast Ha-Ha-Ha. Bob Feldaus Union Corrections, Raiford, Fla.
13. Amazing that John 3:16 was written before St Valentine even existed. Yet God has a neat way of manifesting himself. I'm not concerned about the 2117 parole date. As long as I continue to operate within God's will; I'll be just fine no matter where I am, cause I know where I'm going to spend eternity.

14. Just wanted to tell you how much I appreciate being on the mailing list for the newsletter.
Dennis Parry, Glades Corrections, Belle Glade, Fla.
15. Yes, you are and will always be a part of this very, very big family of inmates and if ever you need us, I'm sure in my heart and mind that one of the many will be there for you and Wings. And yes, I once more thank you for all you have done, are doing, and will do for us all. Guy Bishop, Union Corrections, Raiford, Fla
16. I appreciate you doing what you do. It brightens my day when I open your letters. Thank you. Avery Stubbs SSCF, Delmont, NJ
17. To Whom It May Concern, I just finished reading a copy of "Outcast" I really enjoyed it, by the time I got a hold of it, I must say it was a bit worn. I don't know what all you offer, besides the newsletter, but I would love to be put on your mailing list. I'm serving 25 years in Fla. Dept of Corrections. I am a born again Christian who had to go to prison before I stopped backsliding and got myself back where I belong with the Lord. Thank you in advance! God Bless.....William McAlister, Union Corrections, Raiford, Fla.
18. Dear Lynne and Sara, I'm so happy to know that ya'll are in the best of health, Thanks to God and I'm good myself. My blessing to ya'll and everyone in the Wings of Eagles Ministries. And everybody in prison are very blessed to have ya'll. I got the picture you sent me and ya'll made me laugh by saying that ya'll are no spring chicken's. Well let me tell ya'll I'm 26 years old and I feel that God has put ya'll in my path for some reason and I'm very thankful for that. This is short letter but when I get stamps I will write to ya'll. It is very hard for me right now. But I always ask God to help me. GOD BLESS Ya'll, Darci B. Suwannee Corrections Annex, Liveoaks, Fla.
19. Thank you for all you and the Wings of Eagles have done for me and everyone else in here. Keep up the good work and please don't give up on US because some of us try to be the best we can and some just don't know how to be a better person. I guess it just the way it is for some. James W., Federal Corrections Inst. McKean, Bradford, Pa.
20. All the Praises, Glory, and thanks too Him for letting you be a comfortable friend to those who is in need of one. You're special in more ways than one. Praise the Lord. Freddie W., Union Corrections, Raiford, Fla.
21. I didn't get the chance to get back to ya'll before now and I feel bad about that because ya'll always think about me. You never forget about me and that means a lot. Wings of Eagles, keep doing what ya'll doing. And if not one person shows their appreciation. I'm letting ya'll know right now you are deeply appreciated and loved. Mike Watson, South Wood State Prison NJ
22. At this time please let me say THANK YOU, Sara and Wings of Eagles having become a very positive part of my changed life that I am living. Nathaniel Renfro, 1/2 house, Harrisburg, NJ
23. Dear "Wings of Eagles", It would be a Blessing to receive your newsletter. I'll keep you in prayer. Love, Bill, Union Corrections, Raiford, Fla.
24. I can't wait to get the next newsletter. After, I read them I send them to my sister up in K.Y. Thanks for being there for me to write to. Dennis Parry, Glades Corrections, Fla.
25. Oh, and it is good to finally see the lovely ladies who've been keeping me in mind every moth. I just want to say for the record, ya beautiful and I truly enjoy the newsletter and the devotionals you send me all the time. I don't know if you hear this enough but Thanks a million. The mail always comes when I least expect it and I don't get much mail so I'm always enjoying the Outcast newsletter.
26. Every day I give thanks for you too that got put in my life at this hard time that I'm doing. I give thanks to God for putting you 2 spring chick's in my path.
